Excerpts from overall home visit

HV1: Okay. Um, and how often does she read her books? Almost never, once or twice a month¾

PAR2: She has read them all, when she has read them she doesn't like to read the same thing. I know that she often brings books borrowed from school.

HV1: Ah, she can get them at school, [0:03:00]she brings them, and then she keeps changing them. And how many does she keep?

PAR2: They usually lend her two.

HV1: Two?

PAR2: Uh-huh.

PAR1: She gets them at school, borrowed.

PAR2: Sometimes she asks us for money to buy books.

HV1: When there is a fair.

PAR1: Yes, when there is a fair she usually buys one or two.

HV1: And how often do you read with her?

PAR2: No, we don't, because the books are in English and we can't read English
[0:31:00]

HV1: You don't¾

PAR2: No. She reads English.
